

FAIR PROJECT BEING PUSHED

Committee Starts Into The Country To Secure Stock Subscriptions Today.

WANT TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS

Project Of Holding Fair In Janesville This Fall Is Now Being Seriously Considered. And Will Be Decided This Week.

Whether Janesville is to have a real fair this autumn or not will be decided within the next seven days. Men have begun a systematic campaign through the county to present the plan to the farmers themselves and if they are successful the fair will be held. If not, the project will be dropped for the present at least. To have the fair $20,000 will be needed.

At a meeting of the gentlemen interested in the project several evenings ago it was decided to rush the work of bringing up the question of stock subscription. Between eight and ten thousand dollars has been raised in Janesville. Two to four thousand more can be counted on and it is up to the farmers to decide whether a fair shall be held.

This morning, Joseph Humphrey, James Lamb, Frank Stur, Bert Gage and William Dooley began their work in the country districts. F. S. Sheldon will join the party tomorrow and it is hoped by the end of the week the total sum of twenty thousand will be subscribed. This, the promoters feel, is an essential part of the work, rather than try and go ahead with a less sum.

The decision must be reached quickly if the proposed association is to secure the fair grounds and make the changes necessary for the holding of a fair next fall. Chairman Charles Putnam is optimistic that the money will be subscribed and thinks the fair is a go. He said this afternoon:

"We have done fairly well in the city and if we can equal the work in the country we will be safe in planning for a rousing fair next fall. We must make our decision within a week owing to the fact that the ground formerly used for a fair will be rented for farm purposes and otherwise, hence our rush."

"It is up to the farmers if we have a fair. If we do we can have a rousing one and each year it will become better and better. It will in no way interfere with the Evansville fair, but will help it in fact by bringing more exhibitors into this part of the country."

LORD DALMENY WEDS ANNIVERSARY OF ENGLISH HEIRESS

Marriage to Dorothy Grosvenor Today Unites Two of the Foremost Families of England.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

London, April 15.—Two of the foremost families of England were united today when Dorothy Grosvenor became the bride of young Lord Dalmeny. The bride is the daughter of Lord Henry Grosvenor, an uncle of the Duke of Westminster, whose wealth is equal to that possessed by any man in the United Kingdom. Lord Dalmeny, the bridegroom, is the son and heir of the former premier, the Earl of Rosebery.

Lord Dalmeny has been much in the public eye and society gossip have had him married for a number of times, but not until he met the beautiful and demure nineteen-year-old Miss Grosvenor was his lordship tempted to give up the life of the young lord which he had been enjoying to the full for several years past.

Both bride and bridegroom will eventually inherit large fortunes. Lord Dalmeny will come into at least $500,000 a year, left by his mother, who was a daughter of Baron Rothschild. He will also inherit Montmorency in Bucks, a lovely estate filled with immensely valuable art treasures collected by the late Baron Lionel Rothschild.

CONTINUE TO MAKE PLANS FOR LABORS

Senatorial Committee Is to Have Its Plans for Procedure Fixed Before They Really Begin Work.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., April 15.—At a meeting of the joint senatorial investigating committee—the "old committee"—yesterday afternoon, after a short discussion, a motion was passed that each member of the committee outline the ideas which he believes should be incorporated into a report to the legislature. This action was taken at the request of some of the committee, who said they had not finished reading the 6,700 odd pages of testimony. The motion does not, however, prevent several members getting together and presenting reports of their own. There is every likelihood now that the senate members will have a report of their own and that the assembly members will do likewise. The committee will be joined, subject to the call of the chairman of either side of the table, by the senate investigating committee.

SOUTHERN LEAGUE OPENS ITS SEASON

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Atlanta, Ga., April 15.—Under conditions perhaps more auspicious for a successful year than ever before in its history, the Southern league starts the season of 1939 today, with Little Rock playing at Memphis, Mobile at New Orleans, Montgomery at Nashville and Birmingham at Atlanta. The schedule as adopted by President Kavanaugh and his associates calls for 149 games, the season to close Sept. 18.

The present season marks the fifth year of the South Atlantic league. Two new clubs, Columbus, Ga., and Chattanooga, have been added to the circuit of last year. The personnel of the old clubs has undergone considerable change since last year and, with the single exception of Jacksonville, all of the clubs begin the season with new managers at the helm.

WOMEN TIDY UP CAPITAL STREETS

Much Needed Reform at Washington Effected By the Twentieth Century Club.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Washington, D. C., April 15.—Thanks to Washington club women the streets of the national capital are cleaner today than ever before within the memory of the "oldest inhabitant." Of late the streets and alleys of the city became so covered with dirt and littered with papers, tin cans and other refuse that their condition was a subject for ridicule and comment on the part of visitors.

The Twentieth Century Club, whose membership embraces many women of Washington's prominent families, decided to take the initiative in the reform movement. Not satisfied with the resolutions of the city council, the club women decided to do the street cleaning themselves rather than tolerate the dirt and filth any longer. Accordingly, this morning was appointed as the time for the spring cleaning. The members of the club, with the cooperation of their friends and neighbors, donned their old dresses and set to work collecting the dirt and rubbish on streets and parkways in the vicinity of their homes. Before noon, as a result of the women's work, the capital was a much cleaner place, looking like "Spotless Town" than ever before in its history.

WHEAT BULLS MEET A SEVERE SET BACK

Prices Drop on the Chicago Board of Trade—Patten Buys Furiouly.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Chicago, April 15.—The wheat bulls received a setback today on the board of trade when July wheat tumbled 4 1/2 cents; May, 3 1/2 cents; and September, 3 1/2 cents. Patten bought furiously along the line and the close showed a reaction averaging something over a cent.

The purchases of Patten and his associates during the final fifteen minutes of trading approximated three million bushels of May, July and Sept. wheat. The favorable crop reports from Illinois and Missouri, together with a drop of five cents at Winnipeg led to heavy selling and the decline in price.

LOBBY WAS ROUTED BY THE ASSEMBLY

University Authorities Tried to Prevent Two Women Being on Board of Regents.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, April 15.—The university lobby was routed today in its opposition to a bill to have two women members on the board of regents. Yesterday the bill was defeated but today it was revived and advanced by a vote of 56 to 37. The university officials opposed the bill.

The assembly also refused to memorialize congress to remove the tariff on hides.

Senator Whitehead's resolution remonstrating against a federal inheritance tax law was adopted by the senate after a debate. Senator Gaylord, the social democrat, alone favored such a federal tax.

The senate committee on state affairs introduced a bill to abolish the state game warden system and substitute a county system of game protection.

AFTER TOBACCO OF VERY SPECIAL MAKE

Bill Before Legislature Which Would Prohibit Use of Brown Paper in Smoking Tobacco.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., April 15.—Assemblyman Onstad today is gathering statistics and information to support his bill that will compel the labeling of all packages of tobacco, giving the nature of their contents. The bill will not be set for hearing for at least two weeks, and in the meantime Mr. Onstad expects to receive valuable information regarding the true ingredients of different brands of tobacco offered for sale in the state. A special examination of some of the brands will be made by State Chemist Richard Wagner of Madison.

"Efforts for my researches show that a bill of this kind should pass," said Assemblyman Onstad today. "I have found that one of the most generally used among the cheaper varieties of granulated tobacco, which is being extensively advertised, is composed largely of ground-up brown paper, a little macerated tobacco stems and stalks—all steeped in a decoction made by boiling cigar 'butts' picked up in the streets."

The Onstad bill promises to meet with considerable opposition, especially from the lobbyists for the tobacco "trust," who are averse to making known the contents of their wares.

CONVERT AUTO INTO

Inspection Car.Superintendent W. B. Linsley of the Peninsula Division is going to send his big touring automobile to the Escanaba shops and have it converted and clutches are to be removed and will be replaced by a steel pan-ner which will make the car's opera-steering gear will be clamped securely and the automobile converted into an ideal light inspection car. It will be used for short trips instead of the superintendent's regular private coach, and is expected to prove a great accommodation. Converting the Speaking before the church of England Temperance society recently, the bishop of London said that, as the result of an inquiry regarding the drink evil, 15 doctors stated that in the middle class there was a decrease of drinks, 88 in fashionable practice spoke of the increase among the well-to-do, and 93 of the increase among working women. At the request of the home office 23 London public houses were watched for four days, and 39,540 women, with 10,471 children, entered.

The chief cause, said the bishop, of drinking among the well-to-do was want of occupation; among the poorer classes it was overwork and over-worry.Influence of a National Anthem.

without molesting anyone."Always Time for Courtesy.
That there was always time for cour-expressed it in his consideration of the spiritualism of his day: "I sometimes comes to me."—Vernon Murray.Cultivate Agreeableness.

undefinable qualities, possess the pow-

in their defence; and this without ap-

Immortality.
Faith in immortality cannot be acquired from another. One cannot convince oneself of immortality. In order to know faith in immortality it is necessary that it should be, and in order that it should be it is necessary to understand that your life consists in its being immortal.—Tolstoy.Misfit Advice.
"Always climb up and never go down—that is the way to gain a crown, and make your life work greater. Something like this the moralist said; the youth replied, as he shook his head: "I run an elevator."—Walt Mason, in Emporia Gazette.Col. Patten, a ganization composed of soldiers

of distinction
who fought in the Civil War, very popular in secret
society circles, recommends the famous
remedy,
Peruna,
as a spring
tonic.Having read the above testimonial, what conclusion must be reached by any fair-minded, unprejudiced reader?
Is there any possibility that a man of the prominence and reputation of Col. Patten could be induced to say such things if he did not honestly believe them to be true?
Remember, he says not only that he recommends Peruna as an invigorating spring tonic, but also as one of the best remedies that he has ever tried for coughs, colds and catarrhal complaints.
What are you going to do with such evidence? Are you going to turn away from it and listen only to the talk of people who probably never saw a bottle of Peruna, certainly never tried a bottle of it, who have nothing else to do but to talk about other people's affairs? Are you going to listen to such people as that, instead of accepting the testimony of those who know?
There may be a few people so constituted as to be able to perform such a mental feat. But the sensible people, the reliable people, the brawn and brain of the world, who are governed by principles of justice and common sense, are going to accept the clear, pointed and undoubted testimony of a man of national reputation who knows what he is talking about. It is an invigorating spring tonic. It is Peruna—everything he says is true. We have many testimonials attesting to this fact.
Peruna is manufactured by the Peruna Drug Mfg. Co., Columbus, Ohio.High Class Suits

WANTS TO AID THE PHILIPPINES

TAFT SENDS MESSAGE TO CONGRESS URGING NEW TARIFF LAW.

DEMOCRATS IN A WRANGLE

Fail to Agree on Policy to Be Followed in Senate Fight on Payne-Aldrich Bill—Want an Income Tax.

Washington, Apr. 15.—In a message sent to congress today, President Taft transmits a tariff bill governing trade between the Philippines and foreign nations.

The Philippines are in a peculiar position on the tariff question. Goods from the United States are admitted free, but other nations have to climb a tariff wall. On the other hand, many of the products of the Philippines entering this country must pay duty. Among the principal of these are sugar and tobacco.

Taft's Position Unchanged.

Mr. Taft's position on that phase of the Philippine tariff has not been changed since he stated in his speech of acceptance at Cincinnati that many unfortunate circumstances have delayed the coming of business prosperity to the islands. Much may be done he said, in bringing that prosperity by increasing trade between the islands and the United States under tariff laws permitting reciprocal free trade, with such limitations as to sugar and tobacco imported into the United States as will protect American interests.

Democrats Hold Conference.

For more than four hours the Democratic members of the senate conferred yesterday in an effort to agree upon a policy toward tariff legislation. At the end of that time Senator Culberson, the minority leader, announced that the Democrats had agreed to support an income tax amendment and to stand for substantial reductions in schedules, and particularly for a decrease in the rates on necessities of life.

The conference was not binding, but regardless of this fact it was not entirely harmonious. Some of the senators present admitted frankly that they would ask for protection for the industries of their states.

Senator Spooner in favor of his program for independence for the Philippines after 15 years and absolute free trade with the islands during that period. Senator Foster was opposed to free trade with any of the colonies. Neither of these senators, it was apparent, could have obtained a majority of the Democrats for their proposition had a vote been taken.

Agree on Income Tax.

Only on one question was the conference agreed and that was the income tax amendment. No details were arranged in the program to fight for reductions in rates all along the line. The conference was adjourned until tomorrow, as all of those present agreed that they were not sufficiently acquainted with the bill to pass judgment intelligently upon it. While the Democrats were in session notices of the meeting of the finance committee today were delivered to the minority members of that committee.

In view of all the criticism made of the tariff bill as amended by the finance committee of the senate, particularly the observation that the bill will not produce sufficient revenues for the country's need, Senator Aldrich will undertake on Monday to satisfactorily explain the revenue features of the measure. As the Democrats will ask that the bill lay over until Monday, Mr. Aldrich does not intend to make tomorrow the statement of which he has already given notice but will present a far more elaborate argument on Monday than he had intended.

Revenues to Fall Short.

It will be pointed out that the estimate of revenues to be derived from the operation of the Payne bill made by the ways and means committee falls short of the actual possibilities of the measure. The senate committee on finance had the benefit of the advice of the best experts in the government service and from an analysis which they made of the house bill they predicted that the revenues would have been far greater under that measure than were estimated.

Great dependence is placed by senate leaders in the work being done by former Senator Hemenway on behalf of the new senate committee on public expenditures. Information is being collected by him which will be used in paring down annual appropriations. The senate leaders have taken the position that governmental extravagance must cease and it is reported that Mr. Hemenway will recommend a reduction of about $25,000,000 from the $160,000,000 of permanent funds and that a like sum may be pruned from the regular annual appropriations for the various executive departments.

OUR FUTURE FISCAL POLICY.

Washington appears willing to leave the question of new methods of taxation until the regular session of congress next December. This policy has much to recommend it. The government is very far from being in financial straits, with a nominal cash balance of $133,000,000, even though $22,000,000 of this is still on deposit in national banks. If the deficit grows rapidly, the secretary of the treasury has ample power to meet it by the issue of the one-year treasury certificates which was availed of by Sec. Cortelyou during the panic. At the present low rates for money, many banking institutions would be glad to invest funds in three per cent obligations of this sort, which would be redeemed in cash at the end of a year. No honest political criticism could do against the issue of these certificates. If it were made clear that they would be redeemed out of the proceeds of taxation, after a well-matured plan had been adopted, it would be much better to devote the recess of congress to the careful consideration of such a plan than to enact some crude and hasty piece of legislation which would have to be repealed or radically modified within a few years.

From present indications the deficit in current receipts will run at a much slower rate during the next few months than it has since the panic. It is rather significant that customs receipts are steadily increasing. In spite of the stagnation in general business, under ordinary conditions importers and manufacturers would live from hand to mouth until they knew what the new tariff rates were to be. Imports would be hastened in cases where duties were increased under the new law, and there may be some articles which are being withdrawn from bond for this reason. On the other hand, importations would naturally be held back on all articles where duties were reduced, except to the extent that the goods were actually required for consumption. The fact that customs receipts increased from $21,155,017 in March, 1900, to $28,631,730 in March, 1901, is a significant indication of improvement. Even more significant, perhaps, is the increase during the first nine days of April from $7,112,841 in 1900 to $10,057,137 in 1901.

When new taxation is finally imposed, it is highly desirable that it should introduce an elastic element into the revenue. Some subject of taxation should be found which will permit variations in the rate according to the requirements of the treasury, without disturbance to business and, if possible, without new legislation. Important steps have been taken by congress and the president to bring about greater coherence in the budget policy of the federal government. They should be crowned by some law which, like the English income tax, would permit a variation in the rate of the levy from year to year. Obviously, however, neither the customs tariff nor a tax upon any particular product when manufactured would meet the requirements of such a law, because of the disturbance which would be introduced into business if the rate were frequently changed and the losses which the government would suffer by the effort to anticipate such changes.

The subject of such an elastic factor in the fiscal system is one which President Taft and his associates might well study before the regular meeting of congress. The conviction is growing in this country that a part of the burden of taxation should fall upon accumulated wealth, rather than upon consumption or upon the processes of doing business. If such a system of taxation, right or wrong, is to be established, the work is likely to be done in a more conservative manner by the party in power than by its opponents. To postpone and resist a reasonable system of taxation which would distribute the public burdens in some relation to the ability to bear them, will not benefit ultimately those who are the owners of great wealth. They possess a source of federal income which has yet been hardly tapped, but which is likely to become in the future an important factor in the problem of raising revenue.

PAYING THE PIPER.
For Austria's sake it is to be hoped that the report that she has resolved upon a large project of naval expansion, beginning with the construction of three battleships of the Dreadnaught type, may prove to be unfounded. If it be true, however, it means that, having wantonly repudiated her obligations under the treaty of Berlin, she considers it necessary to make ready to defend her conduct against any other power disposed to resent it. The necessity, be it real or imaginary, which forces Austria to join in the mad craze for naval expansion is tragic. It is much as if a decrepit old man who needed all his money for crutches and food, were wheedled by designing neighbors into investing it in a balloon. Austria-Hungary, with a population of about 47,000,000, has a national debt of something like $1,100,000,000 and national wealth estimated at only $20,000,000,000 as against $110,000,000,000 for the United States, $62,000,000,000 for Great Britain, $12,800,000,000 for France, $12,000,000,000 for Germany and $35,000,000,000 for Russia. That Austria-Hungary, outclassed by all these powers in the elements of national wealth, should deliberately undertake to compete with them in costly rivalry for naval power is one of the monumental follies of the times.

Austria has acquired this questionable asset of German countenance and sympathy. Without the support of Germany she never would have dared to repudiate the treaty of Berlin by seizing two Balkan provinces in spite of the protests of England, France and Russia. But having committed that gross act of international bad faith, acting, perhaps, upon a hint from Berlin, Austria seems eager to provide herself with a navy worthy of association with the German fleet in the event of joint action by the two empires.

The lesson should be clear. By a flagrant violation of treaty obligations Austria has placed herself in a position which requires a large and costly increase in her national defense at a time when she is already overburdened with debt and taxation. She is paying the piper for a dance which was neither graceful nor exhilarating. Surely one moral is that if betrayal of faith, either by nations or individuals, is the costliest and most dangerous of follies.

This spring hunting proposition appears to have stirred up a lot of hunters and sportsmen the state through and they claim that the men who want the measure passed are all game hogs or pot-hunters.

So Hetty Green has married her daughter off to a wealthy man and then promptly herself takes up lodgings at a fashionable hotel at One Hundred Twenty Five per, with findings thrown in.

There promises to be something radical doing when the new council gets to work and if present plans continue it will be safe to say that the changes planned will be for the best.

Castro can buy a ticket to any port, but the one he wants to land in, however, he is no worse off than he was when he left poor Venezuela to shift for itself while he went to Europe.

Nearly twenty thousand American citizens moved into Canada last year and they are considered as desirable citizens.

This platform of "Obey the Law" laid down by Mayor-elect Carlo is bothering those in some quarters who do not know what the law really is.

Turkey should be careful or its advertised bloodless revolution will not be such a drawing-card after all.

As for Senator Aldrich, he is what might have been termed by shabby persons as a wise old owl.

The spring pilgrimages have begun and the drayman is about the busiest man in town these days.

The Art of Being Happy.
"Cheerfulness," says Ruskin, "is as natural to the heart of man in strong health as glow to his cheek, and wherever there is habitual gloom there must be either bad art, unwholesome food, improperly severe labor or erring habits of life." If children were taught that one of the great life duties is to unfold the fun-loving side of their nature, the humorous side, there would not be so many suicides, so many unhappy, discontent, miserable people, so many failures in the world.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

(Copyright, 1900, by American Press Association.)

"NEVER HURT A WOMAN."
Once in awhile the stage gets hold of a vital truth of life.

In one of the new plays a motherly maiden aunt takes occasion to give advice to her nephew, a reckless but good hearted boy.

In the course of her heart to heart talk the doting aunt says:

"My boy—

"I understand and sympathize with your high spirits, and I do want you to have a good time. You are full of health and new found strength. Maybe you are growing up harder than most boys. Your bills for broken glass have been numerous and large. But I only love you the more for your high spirit. There is only one thing you might do that I could not forgive, and that is—

"To hurt a woman!"

Could the wise apostle have inspired a nobler sentiment in the heart of her favorite boy?

Theologians have disputed as to what is "the sin against the Holy Ghost"—the unforgivable sin.

It is just that—to hurt a woman.

That is the one irrefragable, never to be condoned sin, of all sins.

Every woman who has borne a son owes it to her sex to burn that lesson deep on the tablets of her boy's young heart—that to harm a trusting woman is to commit the capital crime.

Read the newspapers.

Analyze the crimes of our day and you will discover that most of them, in one way or another, are crimes against womanhood.

What is the reason?

Is it too much to say that it is partly the fault of the mothers, who because of false modesty fail to teach their sons the truth respecting their conduct toward all women?

Of course the father is under obligations to deal frankly with his son concerning the questions of sex, the great life questions. But how few of them do it!

However—

If the boy from infancy hears the admonition from a mother's loving lips, "Never hurt a woman," he will not forget the teaching.

Never hurt a woman!

Would there were more Aunt Marys like this one of the stage to teach the high civility of noble action toward womanhood!

Such a sentiment bred in the soul of the young men would make a new world.

SOAKING IN PROSPECT, ANYWAY.

CHAPLAINS IN CONGRESS.
REV. EDWARD HALE, CHAPLAIN OF THE SENATE AT TOP, AND REV. HENRY NOBLE CONDEN, CHAPLAIN OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Washington.—No more interesting or beloved characters are to be found in the national capital than the chaplains of the house and senate. These two grand old men are familiar figures at Washington and every morning during the sessions of congress they open their respective bodies with prayer.

Rev. Edward Everett Hale last week founded out his eight-seventh year of an unusually active life. Rev. Conden is a much younger man, being 67 years old. He is totally blind and has been chaplain of the house since 1895.

Land and Nautical Miles.
In considering the speed of a steamship, it must be remembered that a knot, or nautical mile, is a very different thing from a land mile. A mile is 6,250 feet, while a knot is 6,080 feet and a fraction. Therefore, when a vessel makes 23.05 knots an hour, she passes over very nearly 27 land miles.

TURKS' REVOLT HAS NOW ENDED

TRANQUILITY FOLLOWS FORMATION AND INSTALLATION OF NEW CABINET.

SULTAN IS THE PEACEMAKER

Ordains the Observance of the Sheri Laws and Preservation of the Constitution—Mutinous Troops Return to the Barracks.

Constantinople, Apr. 15.—Fear of a revolution has passed. Following Tuesday's stirring events in the capital, a new cabinet has been formed and installed and the observance of the Sheri laws has been ordained. These have served to bring peace.

The members of the new cabinet, of which Tawfik Pasha is the grand vizier, have been installed in office. Greatly Relieves Tension.

The formation of the cabinet, although it is not composed according to general expectations, has greatly relieved the tension of the last 36 hours. Last night the city was quiet; the troops returned to their barracks and the crowds in the Stamboul quarter retired to their homes.

Confidence is gradually returning, although the military situation will require all the energies of the new government for its successful handling, and the promulgation of wise measures so that the army may be placed on a more satisfactory basis. One of the first acts of the government will be to supply new officers to replace those who have been rejected by the men, and this will be no easy task. Fortunately, the new minister of war, Edham Pasha, is generally respected and trusted, and it is confidently believed that he will succeed in restoring order.

It is noteworthy that while the revolution of last July was the work of officers, the present movement was carried forward by the soldiers, aided by the religious party, the leaders in the movement being the very troops, the Solouki-Chansours, which heretofore had been the mainstay of the Committee of Union and Progress.

The rising has resulted in the complete obliteration of this committee and its newspaper organs, while many deputies representing the committee group have resigned or remain in their homes.

During the whole thrilling momentous episode, the salient features of the revolution were the loyalty of the troops and the people to the sultan, whose name was frequently acclaimed and the absence of attacks on the lives and property of citizens.

The new cabinet held a meeting to deliberate on the situation. The grand vizier and the Sheri ul Islam upon their arrival at the Porte in state were cheered by an immense crowd that had gathered there. On the approach of the cortege an intimation was sent to the troops, and the discharges of musketry ceased like magic. The precincts of the Porte were crowded in every part, and the hall where the ministry was installed was packed to overflowing.

Imperial hall appointing Tawfik Pasha grand vizier and confirming Zia Eddin Kiamil as Sheri ul Islam, also ordains the strict observance of the Sheri laws and the preservation of the constitution, "for the maintenance of the security and progress of the government and country and the welfare of all people."

The sultan adds that the observance of the instructions laid down in the hatt is of the most importance, and concludes by invoking Divine assistance on the efforts of the grand vizier and the cabinet, which is composed of elements "outside of the parliamentary parties and which generally is considered as transitory and likely to lead eventually to the return of the former grand vizier, Kiamil Pasha and the former war minister, Nazim Pasha, two of the most popular men in Turkey."

JURY CONVICTS AXTELL.
Ex-Treasurer of Bloomington, Ind., is Found Guilty.

Bloomington, Ind., Apr. 15.—Harry A. Axtell, ex-city treasurer of Bloomington and ex-secretary of the Real Estate Building association, last night was declared guilty of embezzlement by a jury which had been out six hours. It means that one of the most prominent men in southern Indiana is sentenced to the penitentiary.

Axtell has just undergone his second trial. The first, for alleged shortages in the city treasury, resulted in an acquittal. He was confident of acquittal this time and the verdict broke him down completely. Axtell until the smashup in his affairs last summer was a business leader and estimated to be worth $150,000. His city mortgage is alleged to be more than $7,000 and his building association affairs are behind more than $40,000.

Will Fight Sunday Games.
Indianapolis, Ind., Apr. 15.—Clifford Keating, an attorney, has announced that before next Sunday he would file suit in one of the local courts to enjoin baseball clubs from playing at Washington park on Sundays, in accordance with the act of the recent legislature legalizing Sunday games.

Mother is 11; Father 13.
Winston Salem, N. C., Apr. 15.—An 11-year-old negro girl of Dillard, Stokes county, has given birth to an eight-pound, well developed girl baby. The father is said to be only 13 years old.

CONFER ON TRUST WAR.
Government Officials Meet to Discuss Taft's Plans.

Washington, Apr. 15.—An important conference was held yesterday at the department of justice, the parties to it being Attorney General Wickersham, Solicitor General Bowers, Secretary Nagel of the department of commerce and labor, Secretary Ballinger of the interior department, Chairman Knapp and Commissioner Proity of the interstate commerce commission, and Mr. Townsend of Michigan. The idea of the conference was to form among the departments of justice, commerce and labor and interstate commerce commission a close co-ordination in the work of the three in accordance with the desires of President Taft concerning the consideration of cases involving alleged violations of the anti-trust law.

It is the desire of the administration to work out a plan of legislation that will be satisfactory to the departments concerned and that will promote the interests of the people. It is assumed that the three departments will work in consonance in the carrying out of this general scheme.

SMALLPOX AND LIONS RAGE.
Disease and Fierce Beasts Await Roosevelt in Africa.

Mombasa, British East Africa, Apr. 15.—A cablegram received here from Theodore Roosevelt declining an invitation to attend a public reception and a dinner makes it evident that he has decided not to stop in Mombasa. Therefore there is much disappointment here.

The steamer Admiral is expected here at daybreak of April 21. At present the monsoon is blowing vigorously.

There has been a sudden outbreak of smallpox at Nairobi. Forty deaths have occurred in the quarantine camp, and three cases are reported from Juja ranch, the property of George McMillan, who will be Mr. Roosevelt's host during a portion of his stay in this section.

Three lions have been interfering with the work at the Makindu station, on the railroad. It is believed that the plans of the Roosevelt party contemplate Komit Roosevelt spending a night at this station.

Old Battleship Made Over.
New York, Apr. 15.—After being out of commission for more than two years, the old battleship Massachusetts sailed out of the Brooklyn navy yard today with a full complement of officers and men. The vessel was built by the Cramps in 1893 and has been largely made over so that she is almost as good as the battleships of much later types.

Gov. Marshall Dinner Guest.
New York, Apr. 15.—Gov. Marshall of Indiana was the guest of honor at the annual dinner of the Phi Gamma Delta, given in the fraternity's clubhouse here last night. One hundred and fifty members were present. The dinner was private. Gov. Marshall's speech, it was announced later, pertained for the most part to the affairs of the fraternity.

No Cigarettes in Minnesota.
St. Paul, Minn., Apr. 15.—Gov. Johnson signed the anti-cigarette bill which makes it a misdemeanor to manufacture, sell or give away cigarettes or cigarette papers within the state. The bill exempts jobbers who do an interstate business. The bill will become effective August 1.

Rob Post Office Safe.
Lacon, Ill., Apr. 15.—The post office at Varna, nine miles east of here, was robbed early yesterday morning by professional yegmen. They blew the safe open and secured $125 in money and $100 worth of postage stamps.

TWO END LIVES ON THE LUCANIA

SUICIDE OF YOUNG WOMEN ON BIG LINER A MYSTERY.

BELIEVED TO BE STRANGERS

Assigned to Same Stateroom When the Lucania Left New York But Not by Prearrangement — Both Use a Pistol.

Liverpool, Apr. 15.—Two young women committed suicide on the Cunard liner Lucania, which left New York for this port April 7. The suicides are shrouded in the deepest mystery. The victims were Margaret Clark, supposed to be from Brooklyn, and Annie Miller, whose former residence has not been learned. They occupied the same second-class cabin, but, so far as known, were strangers when they boarded the ship.

The motive for the double suicide has not been ascertained and as the bodies were buried at sea there will be no inquest. Miss Clark shot herself Thursday, the second day out, while in her cabin. Her companion was greatly agitated over the occurrence and four days later took her own life in the same manner. It is thought that she had been mentally unbalanced by her friend's tragic death.

Mystery Concerning Identity.
New York, Apr. 15.—Mystery surrounds the identity of the two young American women who committed suicide on the Lucania. Neither left any address with the Cunard line officials, who say that apparently they were not acquainted before sailing, as they booked passages separately and were assigned to the same stateroom merely by accident.

Passenger Agent Walker of the Cunard line says a woman about 30 years old engaged second cabin accommodations the day before the vessel sailed. She gave the name Margaret Clark, but no address. The other berth in her cabin remained unassigned until just before the Lucania sailed on Wednesday morning when a young woman who said she was Miss Helen Miller rushed into the office at the pier and asked for a second cabin ticket.

Accompanied by Brother.
She was accompanied by her brother, who said it was important that she sail on the Lucania. He appeared much relieved when a place was found for her.

According to the Cunard line's address, the address "68 Clinton street, Brooklyn," was found among Miss Clark's effects. The address, however, gives no clue as to her identity, as this number is the building of the Long Island Historical society. No one in the building knew of any woman bearing the name given by the suicide.

PRINTER'S ERROR COSTS $4,000.
Mistake in Congressional Directory Expensive to Uncle Sam.

Washington, Apr. 15.—Some printer in the government printing office got liberal with his "u's," "e's" and "w's" on day a while back and cost the United States $4,000. The printer was setting part of the Congressional directory. He got the Hon. Chas. Roosevelt Randall, representative from Texas, as a member of the committee on ways and means from Tennessee.

His misad Mr. Randall's home address by seven letters.

The first print of the directory, 8,000 volumes, was recalled immediately and a new print ordered. The directories sold in the capitol document rooms at 50 cents a copy. Senators, representatives and their friends and prominent citizens got them for nothing. Eight thousand copies at 50 cents means $4,000. And that's what it cost Uncle Sam for having a typo taken liberty with Mr. Randall's post office address.

TAFT AT YALE MEETING.

President Attends Session of the University Corporation, New Haven, Conn., Apr. 15.—President Taft arrived in New Haven early this morning after an all night trip from Washington. He came to attend a meeting of the Yale University Corporation, of which he is a member, and is devoting the day to that duty. No public reception was arranged for him. About midnight tonight the president will start back to the national capital.

Wickersham Has Wheat Appeal.
Washington, Apr. 15.—It was stated at the state department that the appeal of the Pittsburgh bakers to Secretary of State Knox that steps be taken to do away with the "manipulation and selling of futures in wheat and other food products" had been received, had been referred to the department of justice. The department of justice has not yet decided whether any action can be taken in the matter.

Rejected Suitor Shoots Girl.
Lemars, Ia., Apr. 15.—Casper Nielsen, a creamery wagon driver, fatally shot Miss Beale Wengler, who had rejected his attentions, and then attempted to kill her father yesterday. He was overpowered and placed in jail.

Attacked by Mad Squirrel.
Centralia, Ill., Apr. 15.—Paul Caldwell, newly elected secretary of the Baseball association, was attacked in the city park yesterday by a mad squirrel. One of his ears was nearly bitten off before the rodent could be killed.

Beneficent Bacon.
It is a well known fact that bacon cut thin, well cooked, brown, crisp and dry, can be taken regularly and for a long time by those who find all other fats intolerable. This makes it a valuable article for delicate children and others who are weak and fastidious.—Harper's Bazar.

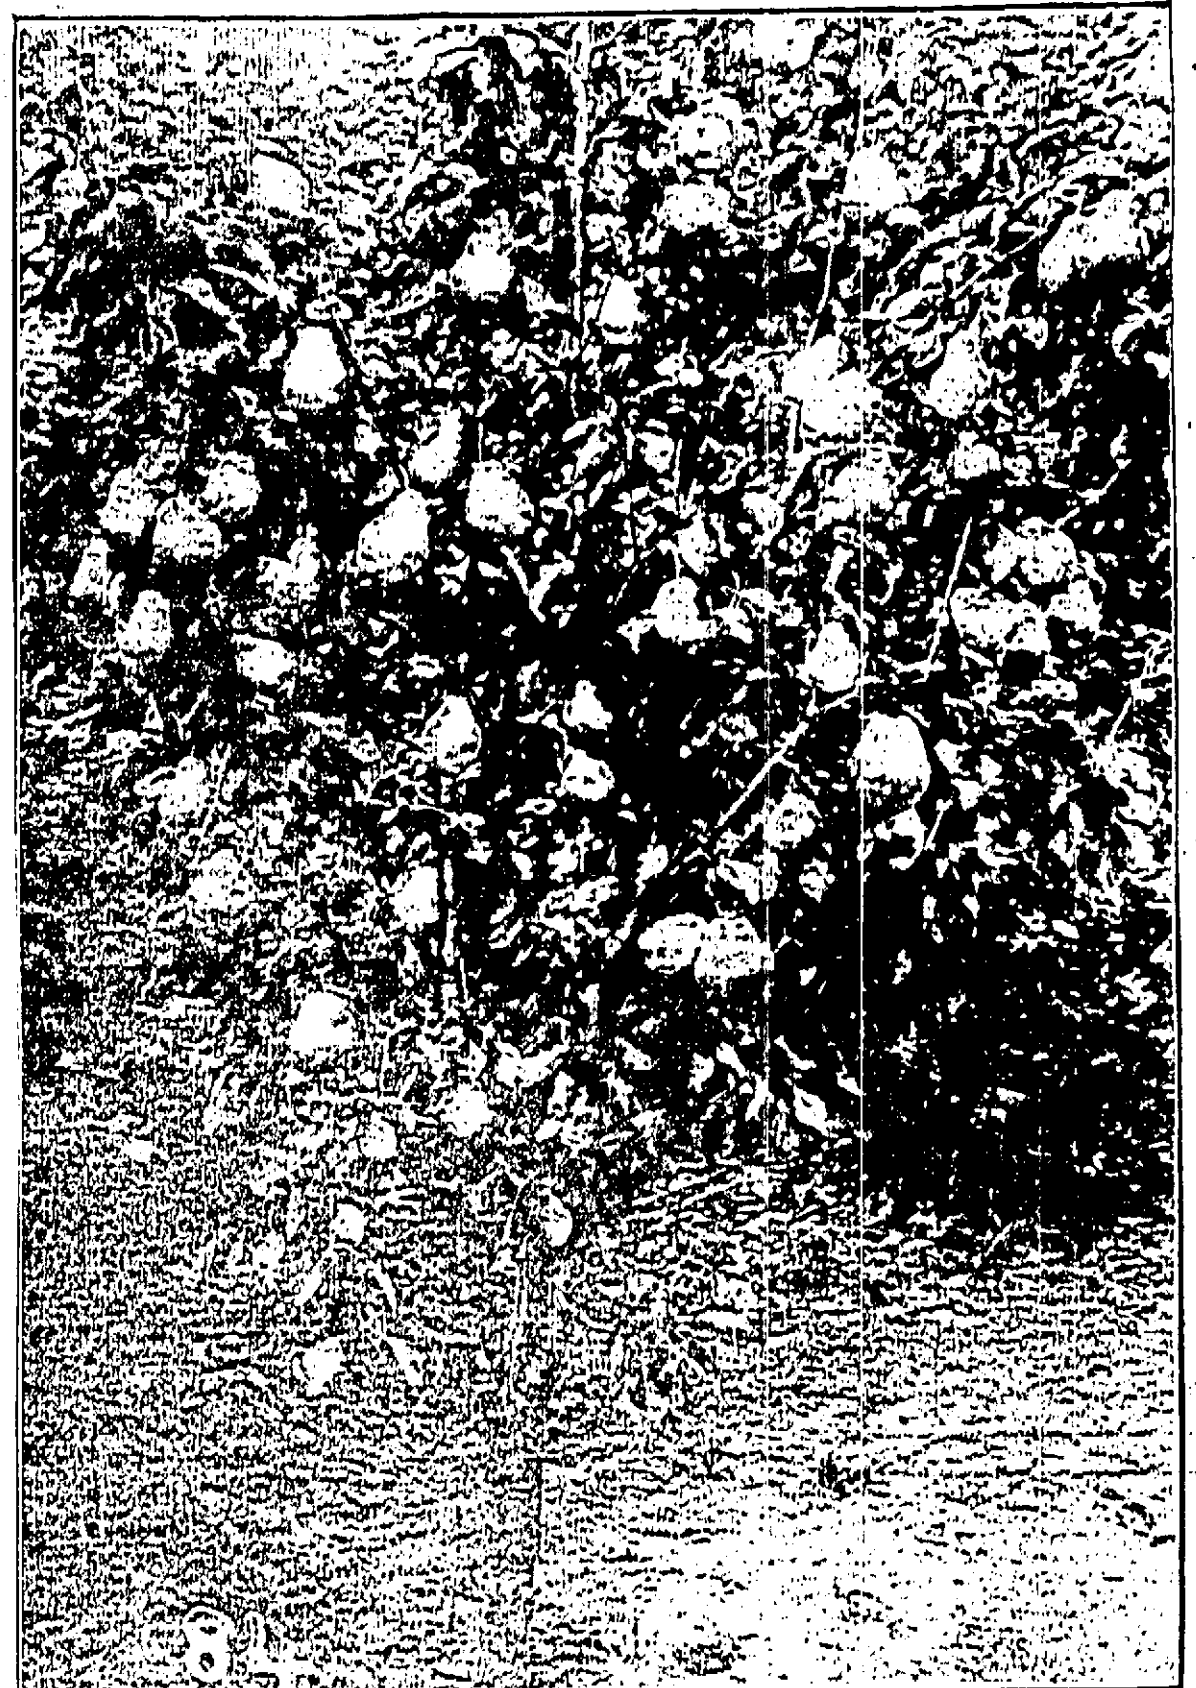

A Peculiar Wish.
Young Chup—Blame the luck! My future father-in-law has been indicted for forging a check for 10,000 marks. If he is found guilty, then I cannot marry his daughter; and if he is innocent, then I get nothing by way of a dowry. My only hope is that he will be set free—and also that he is not innocent.—Ellegendo Haetter.

Killed by Subway Train.
New York, Apr. 15.—Preparatory to his first ride on the subway, Rev. Samuel William Nesbit, a Methodist minister from Tipperary, Ireland, lost his balance and fell to the track in the downtown station at One Hundred and Fifty-seventh street and Broadway last night and was so badly crushed by a south-bound train that he will die. His daughter narrowly escaped falling herself in trying to aid her father.

OUTLOOK SHOWS NO
GREAT IMPROVEMENT

With the Exception of One Sale, Janesville Dealers Report Everything Quiet.

With one exception, the depressing nature of the reports from the tobacco dealers still continues. The exception this week was the sale of 70 cases of '07, and 100 cases of '06 by C. J. Jones and Son to an eastern manufacturer. Nothing else of interest could be unearthed.

Warehouse handling in Janesville
can now be said to be almost finished.
A few firms who were late in starting, still have a force at work, but the majority of the dealers have finished, and those now remaining will be through in a short time. In spite of the long wait, the general confidence that the market will recover seems to be unabated. The con-coming of warmer weather with the resultant opening of the baseball season, together with the prospect of the summer resorts laying in their supply of smoking materials, will doubtless cause an increased demand on the manufacturers and a corresponding revival in the leaf trade. Reports from different parts of the country published by four trade journals are continually adding to their forces and showing that the cigar business is not as gloomy as it was at first. It is believed that the busy season will not be long in coming. Just how long it will be before the uplift strikes Janesville is problematical, but confidence that it will come seems to be general
and in view of the facts, well founded.

GOOD ATTENDANCE
AT K. OF P. DANCE

Assembly hall was tastefully decorated and Pleasing Musical Program was Rendered.

Assembly hall was elaborately decorated with festoons of southern silks interwoven with white carnations
and a canopy of tiny lavender ribbons for the dancing party given by Oriental Lodge No. 22, Knights of Pythias, last evening and a pleasant orchestra of eight pieces dis-coursed a series of alluring marches and two-steps from a stand heavily banked with palms and potted plants.
There was an excellent attendance
and a number of out-of-town guests were among the merry-makers. The general committee which was largely responsible for the success of the affair consisted of E. B. Holmstrom, Jesse Earle, Thomas C. Welch, John H. Jones, and Dr. F. G. Wolcott, and the decorations were arranged by Edward Amerpohl, B. H. Baldwin, Louis
Loy, J. A. McElroy, H. K. Groat,
Frank Snyder, Stanley Tallman,
Frank Farnsworth, and J. D. King.

COFFEE DOESN'T HURT ME

Tales That Are Told.

"I was one of the kind who wouldn't believe that coffee was hurting me," says a N. Y. woman. "You just couldn't convince me its use was connected with the heart and stomach trouble I suffered from most of the time."

"My trouble finally got so bad I had to live on milk and toast almost entirely for three or four years. Still I loved the coffee and wouldn't believe it could do such damage."

"What I needed was to quit coffee and take milkmagnesia in such form as it had no bad effect on the stomach."

"I had read much about Postum, but never thought it would fit my case until one day I decided to quit coffee and give it a trial and make sure about it. So I got a package and carefully followed the directions."

"Soon I began to get better and was able to eat carefully selected foods without the aid of pepsin or other digestants and it was not long before I was really a new woman physically."

"Now I am healthy and sound, can eat anything and everything that comes along and I know this wonderful change is all due to my having quit coffee and got the nourishment
I needed through this delicious Postum."

"My wonder is why everyone don't give up the old coffee and the troubles that go with it and build themselves up as I have done, with Postum."

"Easy to prove by 10 days trial of Postum in place of coffee. The result is big."

"There's a Reason."

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

THAT necessity can develop capable, talented women from fragile, helpless intertides, when forced circumstances demands, is well exemplified in the southern women of today. Many of them are living in beautiful old mansions with nothing in the way of worldly goods to sustain the dignity of their position, which is often pathetic and often tragic.

That they have learned to do for themselves the work formerly performed by half a dozen or more slaves shows their adaptability and versatility. And yet some way these gentle southern women manage to keep all the disagreeables in the background. They may have worked all day cooking and sweeping and preparing for the reception of their guests, but the visitors will never be made aware of it by any long tale of domestic woes.

Your hostess will greet you with the calm, smiling face of one who has an army of helpers in the kitchen rather than a tired woman who has done all the tasks with perhaps her own hands.

I know of a charming southern woman whose misfortune and financial difficulties have only rendered the more charming. She is beautiful as a picture, but she can trim her own hats and evolve her own lovely gown out of odds and ends that the old chests of the attic hold. She can cook fried chicken and corn bread that no Delmonico chef could surpass. She can compose ballads grave or gay, and sing with a voice as musical as a nightingale.

All of these achievements will be a success. The hats and gowns are sure to be becoming. The ballads will be more than mere rhyming and the song will touch the heartstrings of the listeners.

The ability to maintain this cheerfulness and poise in the face of misfortune is altogether too rare. How many times we meet a woman we known in earlier life, grown sour and unlovely because of financial troubles.

I know an elderly woman who was once very rich and popular; now that her husband has lost everything, she is actually avoided by her dearest friends—not because of her lack of money, but because of her threedom, questions, sighs and complaints. She cannot bear to see people have beautiful things without dilating wonderfully on the luxuries she once possessed.

Anyone can be cheerful and happy in good fortune, but it takes real character and bravery to smile in the face of misfortune.

PRESENTED PROTEST
TO THE COMMITTEE

Janesville Lawyers Do Not Favor Bill
Which Is Before the Judiciary Committee of Legislature.

This afternoon before the judiciary committee of the legislature Bill No.
611 came up for consideration. This bill provides that exceptions to the charge of the trial judge should be made before the jury brings in its verdict. In the opinion of a number of the local attorneys there seemed to be some chance that the bill might be reported upon favorably and that it might pass. As a result a petition was circulated this morning and was signed by all the Janesville lawyers and was presented to the judiciary committee this afternoon by M. O.
Mount.

The petition which is appended,
states the chief objections to the proposed bill in the opinion of local lawyers.

To the Committee on the Judiciary
of the Assembly:

The undersigned, members of the Janesville bar, respectfully remonstrate against the passage or recommendation for passage of Bill No.
611, relating to charge to the jury and exceptions thereto.

The law as it formerly stood required exceptions to be made within ten days after the trial, and the judge was to be filed within ten days.
This has been by legislative enactment changed so that now exceptions must be made so that they can be made before the close of the term of court at which the action is tried. This amendment was passed because it was oftentimes found impossible to file the exceptions within the ten days.

The policy of the legislature has been to allow the fullest opportunity for the hearing and reviewing of errors committed by the trial courts.
We can conceive of no reason why exceptions should be filed before the jury returns its verdict, nor why the grounds of exception should be specified.

The exceptions would be merely filed in the office of the clerk of the court; the attention of the court does not need to be called to the same, and it is not apparent why this proceeding should not be taken at any time before the close of the term.

If on a motion to set aside the verdict and grant a new trial, it appears to the court that the exceptions to the charge are well taken, he can order the verdict set aside and a new trial granted, and complete relief is thus secured to the litigant.

In a lengthy charge, it would be in many cases impossible for the attorney to sit down and take his exceptions and specify every legitimate ground of objection within the time limit proposed by the bill in question.

LOCAL PEOPLE WITNESSED
BIG WRESTLING MATCH

Several Janesville Followers of the Game Saw Frank Gotch Defeat
"The Turk" Last Night.

O. E. Moyer, Thomas P. McColquhoun and C. C. Macdonald were among the Janesville people who witnessed the great wrestling match at Chicago last evening. The champion, Frank Gotch, threw Yuself Mahomet, the Bulgarian,
the first time in eight minutes,
and took the second fall out of his big antagonist, with the half-Nelson,
in nine minutes and ten seconds.

LARGE ACREAGE FOR
POTATOES THIS YEAR

Many Farmers Plan to Have Big Patches of Tubers Instead of Other Crops.

Unless many persons change their plans, there will be a large increase in the acreage of potatoes planted in this vicinity this year. Several have announced that they will put in a few acres and two men a few miles north of the city say they each will plant thirty-two acres.

The planting of potatoes is made an easy job as compared with the work years ago, by the use of a machine planter. There are several such on the market, and almost daily some of the dealers are making sales of them. These farmers who have made a study of the potato question and had crops for several years, say they are a sure money getter.

Getting Into Practice.

It is often pleasant to theorize
than to perform. A young law student, says a writer in the Philadelphia Inquirer, was making a study of certain processes of his future profession. He showed an inclination to sit in the house and speculate idly, instead of doing some of the domestic tasks which stood waiting.

"Deduction is an interesting process," declared the youth to his father. "For example, there is a heap of ashes in the yard. That is evidence that the family has recently had fires."

"Well, John," interrupted his father, "suppose you pursue your studies a little farther by going out and sifting that pile of ashes."—Youth's
